Having moved from Lake Forest, a tony suburb on Lake Michigan north of Chicago , I was spoiled by my friend's Rick Bayless and his wife's famous James Beard's awarded restaurant, Frontera in Chicago. Now living in Midway, I have the best alternative, Don Jockey's, The food and drinks are amazing! The decor is especially surprising and beautiful with a huge portrait of the famous Mexican artist, Frida Kahlo. A destina... read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Logan Hord doesn't like about Don Jockey Mexican Grill:

Let me start by saying what I liked- the service was good and the place seemed well kept and clean. Unfortunately the food was subpar. The best part was my grouper but everything else was pretty pitiful for the price. The Mexican rice had an uncanny resemblance to Uncle Ben's. This business has so much potential- great vibe, great location, they just need someone in the kitchen that has passion for cooking because ba... read more. Get excited about the diverse, fine Mexican cuisine, which is traditionally cooked with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. No matter the occasion - a special event - the in-house catering makes it easy to enjoy the food from Don Jockey Mexican Grill in your own four walls, Moreover, the drinks menu of this gastropub offers a good and especially extensive selection of beers from the region and the world that are definitely worth a try.
