Decided to stop by on a whim on a Tuesday evening and even though the place was hopping, we were able to find a seat quickly and were greeted with outstanding service. After being debriefed on all of the many specials, we decided to go with a variety of food choices that all ended up being excellent. I had the soup of the day (cream of asparagus) and we ended up going through two orders of sweet potato fries. Let me... read more.

Not impressed. Food had no flavor, and the atmosphere was confusing. They do not have salt and pepper on the tables, but the food I had was very bland, so they must not have it in the kitchen either. Halfway through our meal, a band came in and setup up ridiculously bright lighting effects, and turned them on, shining in our eyes while we were trying to eat. When we arrived it appeared to be an upscale place (about 6... read more.
