Great ice cream shop. I tried some Ehler's ice cream while being at the Louisville Convention Center. It is apparently pretty popular with the locals, and for good reason. I tried the cookies and cream ice cream, just one scoop. It was quite good. The portion is fine for the price (which is a little high). The employees were friendly when serving me as well. It was made quickly and the wait wasn't long. Flavor-wise, ni... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, and there is complimentary WLAN. What Jarred Brewster doesn't like about Ehrlers's Ice Cream: Quantity over quality! The ice cream was barely passable and the cone was totally flavorless. The amount of ice cream made it cumbersome to eat. edit in response to owner: thanks for replying quickly. This was at your store on main. I got cookie dough chip. I didn't feel that the quality of the ice cream was up to the price point, and this was compensated for with portion size. read more. For visitors of the restaurant, the catering service is also available.
