I only get the chicken salad from this establishment and it is always delicious. The customer service has always been good from the young lady taking the orders. The owner, which is the older lady, isn't rude but she isn't very welcoming either. She just pass your food out and really doesn't say much. However, I don't like the inconsistency in hours. I drive about 35 minutes to visit this location and according to the... read more.
