This is one of the few and best local bakeries around Buckhead. If you're hoping to avoid the big chains and want quality stuff at a reasonable price, this is a good option. They have outdoor seating, indoor seating, pastries, sandwiches, coffee. The staff is super friendly. My only nitpick is that the place looks a little cluttered and at lunch time there's always a really long line. So not a great option if you're... read more. What Hazel

doesn't like about Henri's Bakery Deli:

An Atlanta staple that I've always loved. Their turkey sandwiches have always been my favorite. But recently they've been below standard. Not sure why. Seems like they've been prepared too quickly and the attention to detail that they used to have is gone. Too little mayo, I think. Dot cookies and petite fours are to die for. read more.
