Cute Mexican restaurant inside La Cosecha food hall in the Union Market district. Just kept it simple and ordered one of the Al Pastor, Carne Asada, and Pollo tacos. Each were generally good, but could've used a bit of salsa.

The Pollo taco was a bit spicy which was a pleasant surprise. No real interaction with employees, simply just place your order at the counter and they call your name out when it's ready. Overall... The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. WiFi is available for free. What Christian Stanley doesn't like about Taqueria Las Gemelas:

The Al pastor tacos were dry and, other than the salsa applied, did not have much flavor. I got the pork belly taco as well and it was cold and poorly cooked. I'm not really a fan of corn tortillas but these were the best I've had.

The 15% service fee on everything is stupid. Why not just raise the prices? One bottle of Jarritos is $4. read more. The establishment also offers its guests a catering service, Many customers are also especially looking forward to the diverse, fine Mexican cuisine.
