What User likes about The Cove Grill:

Not worth the trip up the hill. Too basic of a menu for dinner. Basic food. No real ambiance. It's is more of a clubhouse feel within a basic hotel set in the mountain of the island. I had the tuna melt the tuna fish salad was flavorful and a good consistency; the fries were done perfectly. Felt more like a club house kind of meal than a restaurant dinner. My husband had the Caesar salad with salmon. Again, basic. Sa... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in pleasant weather, and there is no-charge WLAN. What User

doesn't like about The Cove Grill:

Closed for the season, but did not have that message posted on their voicemail, website, or Google. Long steep walk for nothing. Not even a pretty walk, lots of garbage in the road unlike other areas. read more. In case you're hungry some seasoned South American cuisine, you're in the right place: delicious dishes, cooked with fish, seafood, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu. Customers can enjoy the dishes from restaurant through a catering service on-site or at the festival. Furthermore, you'll find delicious American meals, like for instance burgers and grilled meat on the menu.
