My experience at this place with my father was great there was no wait time to be sitting. The waitress was very friendly and was awesome taking our order. The food was amazing I had the steak tips and my father had the salmon bowl with a salad. The lemonade was delicious and my father love his Irish margarita I believe what it was. read more. What User doesn't like about Tavern In The Square North Station:

Great location, but long line and wait to get in. So noisy you can't enjoy conversation at your table the drinks were nice and strong. Highly recommend the Nachos, however everything else was very very salty. read more.
