Food was very good. So far, pho broth was rich and flavorful without being greasy or oily, meat and noodles were tender and perfectly cooked. Spring rolls and egg rolls were on point. The only minus was that we had to wait for pho (gasp! . Since this place passed the litmus test, I will go back for banh mi and vermicelli and recommend highly to my friends, neighbors, and coworkers. read more. What User doesn't like about Viet Kitchen Saigon:

I tried to order food here but when I asked if items could be made gluten free they looked at me like I had 3 heads. I asked about different menu items but to no avail. They were happy to let me walkout instead of talking to the kitchen. read more.
