I went for take out, I'll dine in next time. The folks there were very attentive even though there was a line at the registers and its no wonder why. The food was fantastic the portions were fair as were the prices. The sides and corn bread were everything you'd expect from a great bar-b-que spot as was the main bar-b-que entre. Even the fried shrimp were spot on. The only issue I had at all was there was no cocktail... read more.
