We love the boneless honey baked ham. I used to get it as an addition to our turkey for Thanksgiving and one year we all decided to stop having turkey and just order a larger ham. We love not having to do anything but pick it up. We've had the bone in and boneless over the years and both are delicious. Service here is fast too and everyone is super helpful. Wish they would bring back the cheese ham potato side the us... read more. What

Gail Demma Walker doesn't like about The Honey Baked Ham Company:

Picked up a quarter bone-in ham for Easter dinner. Very disappointed when I unwrapped it Easter morning to find the ham was dried out and dark in color as if it had been overcooked. Excited to try the crispy crust that it is so well known for only to have it look like darkened bark when I unwrapped it. I couldn't even properly warm it for my guests since it was already dried out. Would not recommend it especially on... read more. Do you prefer to get your food immediately?
