What Tomas Quigley likes about Yanni's:

we went through the coronavirus on a Saturday evening directly before the shutdown. the restaurant had already taken incredibly responsible steps to remove tables so that the patrons were separated. even without the vire situation, yanni does not touch her restaurant that is so beautiful. service was fabulous as mike and alex are always great and eating with something for everyone is delicious. we love to come and fe... What Giovanni O'Hara doesn't like about Yanni's:

Don't go on special holidays. Our server was good but the kitchen was not on their game. Our appetizer (grilled Octopus) was over 45 minutes late. And before it arrived, we saw the food server walk to four tables around the whole floor asking if it was there. Nothing other folks viewing our appetizers before it got to our table. At that point, we lost our taste for it. read more. With the comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Yanni's becomes even more attractive, also, the Greek delicacies are highly appreciated by the guests of the establishment. If you decide to come for breakfast, a versatile brunch is ready for you, At the bar, you can relax with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
