Visiting IHOP for breakfast on Christmas day, the overall experience seemed positive. The staff was friendly and accommodating, with one reviewer specifically praising their waiter for being attentive and helpful. The food was described as delicious, with generous portions and good coffee. However, some reviewers highlighted issues such as overcooked eggs or slow service, with one reviewer expressing disappointment over a situation where their card was lost and not handled properly. Despite these minor setbacks, the general consensus was that IHOP provided a satisfactory dining experience, particularly on a busy holiday morning.
