Love the large selection of sushi and love to watch how it is made free while we eat. The waiter had made a paper fan, frog and wind mill that he gave us. Another table he gave other hand made origami to. He was quick to pick up plates and full drinks even with having multiple tables. So would go back! read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What Vic L doesn't like about The Journey Sushi and Seafood Buffet:

Used to be better. Not sure if it was because of the pandemic, but the quality has gone down. Ive gone twice this year and felt disappointed each time. I did have their shrimp and fried chicken catered at an event I attended. That was way better. Wouldn't go again unless I was considering catering. read more.
