Went here with some old family friends. We wanted to order from the ala carte menu and the unlimited bbq but they didn't let us, so that was a bummer. The meat choices for the unli menu were pretty good. The sides were also yummy. Would come back! read more. The food was just alright. We tried most of the menu, with #2 being the best. The kimchi is really flavorful and pairs awesome with the meats. But the majority of the food we got was tough and chewy. Prepare for 30 minute wait time and a pretty expensive meal. For 4 people plan on spending well over 200 dollars. Service was great though, the servers help you cook the meats and they answered all of our questions. This... read more. At OO-

Kook BBQ in Los Angeles, tasty, juicy, delicious meat is freshly grilled on an open flame and served with delicious sides, Furthermore, the guests love the creative combination of different menus with new and partially experimental ingredients - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion. Not to forget are the typical Korean menus like Kimchi, Bap and also Jjigae, which have a fixed place on the menu card and also on the tables of the guests, there are also delicious vegetarian menus on the menu.
