This picturesque historic family restaurant has been a favorite for generations, with one reviewer mentioning their mother coming since she was five years old. The owner's kindness and personal touch were highly appreciated, especially on special occasions like birthdays. The outdoor seating overlooking the river provides a peaceful and fun dining experience, perfect for families with children who can enjoy watching ducks and playing in the water. The menu offers all-American comfort food of high quality, including hamburgers, sandwiches, hot dogs, and ice cream.
