Eating is always great and the portions are generous. The egg yolk are huge (I always get sunny side), slightly twice as large as the rubber eggs you get at Denny's or IHOP. Check the hours when busy especially on weekends to avoid waiting. They're definitely short now, but I wouldn't hold it against them. It is also a historical landmark in Selbyville, DE. I think it has been open since the early 1900s. Very cool. read more. What Ray

Zweigle doesn't like about Doyles Restaurant:

Stopped by for breakfast. Haven't been here in probably over 20 plus years... I remember when Doyle's was just the Diner Car... Love the fifties music playlist on the overhead... coming back next week to sit at the counter... read more.
