Busy Friday evening. Service was a little slow, but the food was worth the wait. My wife and I shared an order of spaghetti and meat sauce. We had it with a delicious cup of clam chowder with clam in every bite. We visit here almost every time we are in Visalia for their home cooked meals, read more. What Eric Ávalos doesn't like about

Ryan's Place Restaurant & Bakery:

First time we went paid almost 5 dollars for a dinner salad and just a few pieces of lettuce was pretty much thrown on the plate... gave it another try and the same thing plus my fries were over cooked and fish was very little so thin...for a 14 dollar plate, totally unacceptable. Not to mention also that our waitress was intoxicated...we smelled the alcohol from her breath.... read more.
