Food was delightful. The branzino was excellently cooked and flavored, with a nice crispy texture. The tiramisu dessert was delicious. The appropriate rating for this restaurant should be above 5 stars. My daughter said it was the best restaurant she's ever eaten at. Even the pizza off the kids menu was brick fired and had perfect marinara. Also pleasantly surprised by the quality of the decaf Americano a delicious C... read more. What

Courtney Dixon doesn't like about Brissago:

Overpriced and unnecessarily stuffy. Wine was extremely overpriced for what it was. $23 for a glass of Merlot.

Interior of restaurant is in need of renovation. I felt like the chairs were going to break at any point, very uncomfortable seating with no booth option. 4 adults and one child $440 bill, automatically added an $80 tip to our bill. Price just was not worth it. Would not return, instead I would opt for the c... read more. With the extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Brissago becomes even more attractive, You can take a break at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
