As a person from the Deep South (Louisiana) I love my biscuits and gravy. The biscuits are light and fluffy and the gravy is just perfect with lots of sausage and mushrooms. I had the Reggie with both sausage and mushroom gravy. Food: 5/5 read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather, and there is free WLAN. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Cassie F doesn't like about Pine State Biscuits:

We order a couple times a month, the last few times the food has not tasted so great. The hashbrowns are soggy with little to no seasoning. While the cajun fries are way too seasoned to the point you can't eat them. But what has been frustrating is the wait time, it took 2 1/2hrs to get the delivery today. I wonder if our order was the one waiting forever on the counter like a previous review from today stated. read more. For breakfast, a diverse brunch is offered at Pine State Biscuits in Portland that you can celebrate according to your mood, There are also delicious South American cuisine in the menu. When you're not so hungry, you can just treat yourself to one of the delicious sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack, and you have the opportunity to try fine American dishes like Burger or Barbecue.
