The young lady clocking in was told that it would be just her as one of the employees had an emergency. She was posed yet afraid as she went about the task of flawlessly preparing my order while taking another customer's order in a most professional way. It was quite impressive for her first time to be trusted with the responsibility of the task. I would like to acknowledge her knack for the task as a customer servic... read more.

What User doesn't like about Taco Cabana:

Love the food. They still need bodies, but the food is still awesome. Today they made a major booboo. Street taco tortillas are heated. These were unheated and breaking apart. They felt like they never made it to the griddle. read more.
