Quaint, but popular cafe and market. There was a small line ahead of us, but it moved relatively quickly. There were market items and baked goods upon entry, but we didn't purchase. We ordered artichoke appetizer, two po boys and beingnets. There was a full house, but we found seating in the back. Food arrived promptly, hot and fresh. Everything was to our liking and we enjoyed the view as this is situated between tw... read more.
