We visited Grange Kitchen for our anniversary. The overall experience was superb! My husband had the burger, I had the walleye. The food was exquisite.. melt in your mouth happiness! We both enjoyed the Bourbon Bubbles, and he finished with a John Daly. While the prices are a bit much for a weekly visit, it's worth it for special occasions! stars, definitely recommend, and we will return!! read more.

The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What MarkM doesn't like about Grange Kitchen:

We dined there at Valentine 's Day. They had a prix fix menu with four courses. We were given menus when seated. The server then walked up and said, Are you ready? No discussion of menu or drinks. Oyster course was just fair, a mishmash of flavors. The trout course was bland. We desperately searched for the pickled chilis noted on the description to try to add a little flavor. The juniper ice cream was good. Not the... read more.

For those who want to have a drink after work and hang out with friends, Grange Kitchen from Ann Arbor is a good bar, for breakfast they serve a extensive breakfast here. The burgers of this place are among the highlights and are usually served with filling sides such as French fries, salads or wedges.
