What Larissa M likes about Chilenazo: Little spot with Chilean food. I was getting food to go and I loved the delicious smells inside when waiting for my food. Seems like they definitely specialize in Empanadas so it's a must have for me to try next time. I ordered the fish and chips to go. They were a little softer than I normally like my white fish and not as crunchy as I'd like but still very good. Comes with a red sauce and green sauce which was diff... read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. WLAN is available at no extra cost. What Tashia Buccioni doesn't like about Chilenazo:

I'm so disappointed in the pastel de choclo this time! My husband is Chilean and we live down in Santa Monica, so we stop by for Chilean food whenever we are nearby. Usually the food is great, but this time it was all just meh. My pastel de choclo cost $20 and is mostly corn mash, which definitely doesn't justify the price. We got takeout, so by the time I realized what a rip-off it is, it was too late to do anything... read more. If you're desiring some hot South American gastronomy, you're in the right place: tasty meals, roasted with fish, sea creatures, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu, Besides the yummy sandwiches, small salads and other snacks also make a good snack. If you decide to come for breakfast, a versatile brunch is ready for you, With the catering service from Chilenazo in Canoga Park, the dishes can be eaten at home or at the celebration.
