This place feels like home! I just love the couple that leads the place, they are so sweet and polite. I am a vegetarian when the owner had to know that she had placed a bowl of sausage, although it was not included in the buffet menu. This is a small cozy place. A small head up when you are a person looking for nice and simple food, then this is the right thing, Cuz the food is nothing devastated, but it is simple a... read more. The

The Lunch buffet is a reasonable price, and that's what I've eaten here in the past. However, last night I went there for takeout, and from when we arrived to when we left was an hour. For takeout. There were only two other tables there the entire time. Outside the buffet, the food is quite a bit pricier. My beef pasanda was too salty for me and bland. It's a mom 'n' pop shop, which gives it a certain charm. read more.
