I've been coming for several years and never had a bad experience. I was first brought by a friend who lived in the neighbourhood, and I have it to a regular stop on my culinary card from Philly since. Eating is fantastic, the service is friendly, and the atmosphere is great. Drinks are cheap and the beerlist is solid. A great place to take an evening meal and watch the game, or to catch with friends over a pint. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Era:

Era was my favorite restaurant for many years till 2-3 years ago. I have eaten several times last year or taken from there because it is so close to my friend's house and we love absolutely Ethiopian cuisine. Each time was a bigger disappointment than the last one, and I finally swore for good, unless I hear that they made changes. The portions have become so small. The prices have gone by 50% for the half of the food.... read more. At Era from Philadelphia it's possible to try delicious vegetarian meals, that were made without any animal meat or fish. This restaurant offers a catering service that allows customers to eat the dishes on-site or at the celebration. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), still relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink. In addition, the drinks menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a wide variety of beers from the region and the whole world.
