Not much to add, but this is a quaint coffee community shop I've visited a couple of times. Coffee and tea selection is standard fare and decor is a bit dated but definitely a cozy meet up and study space. WiFi was okay and parking seems not too bad, though limited in the front. This time around I ordered a chicken pesto sandwich that was just so so. But edible with included salad. I didn't expect much and didn't ge... read more. When the weather is nice you can also have something outside, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Bryon Gutkowski doesn't like about Cafe Zoe:

Nice staff (very friendly) good outdoor seating, but not sure why this is so high rated. Our Americans were not good at all breakfast sandwich was average. I guess it could be due to the pastries? The coffee cake was pretty good. read more. The large range of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Cafe Zoe even more worthwhile, The fine sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks can be planned well as a snack. One also grills South American here with fresh fish, meat, as well as corn and rice, The light and healthy meals in the list of specialties also rate among the trendy dishes of the guests.
