The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Pepper's Cocina Mexicana: eating was decent, but very pricy. I had pork. the black was a bit dry for me. Rice-ad-beans were good. we ordered guacamole and it was the best I had on this day. probably a better one when they see. read more. Anticipate the varied, scrumptious Mexican cuisine, which is usually prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), meals from Spain, delight the customers with their delicious savory sauces and spices. The restaurant provides a rich selection of spicy tapas, which are certainly worth a sample, for breakfast they serve a varied breakfast here.
