the perfect Tex-Mex experience. essential is amazing, wonderful cold and relaxed environment, and our serve forklift was a rockstar! whatever they order to get the guacamole with it; it's fantastic! I wish mia was in ga so I could go every week. read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about Mia's Tex-mex:

Very noisy. 20+ people standing in the entrance waiting for a table. They need a separate foyer. Children screaming in high pitched voices, and running around with little to no supervision. The valet parking was nice but small parking lot and the steps were dangerously icy. I had to wear a coat to eat because my seat was against the front window which was metal and freezing. The food wasn't anything different than mo... read more. The catering service is also provided by the restaurant for its visitors, Particularly, many visitors are looking forward to the diverse, fine Mexican cuisine.
