I recently found this gem of a restaurant and love going there. The food is delicious, great specials every day, portions are very generous and the owners and staff are very gracious and friendly. The waitress with a European accent is the best. She really makes the entire dining experience a complete pleasure. You need to check this place out. Make reservations in advance. read more. What Eiríkr R doesn't like about Aurora: I'm Italian so I go straight to the point.. 26$ for the linguini Marechiaro are wasted, too much water in the sauce and tasteless.. The fish is not up to the price, but anyways is edible.. besides everything, the staff is very friendly and kind read more. In Aurora, a restaurant with Italian dishes from Clifton, you can expect typical Italian cuisine, including classics like pizza and pasta, and you can look forward to the delicious classic seafood cuisine. If you'd like something sweet to finish off, Aurora does not disappoint with its extensive selection of desserts, there are also delectable vegetarian menus on the menu.
