Had lunch at this tiny restaurant and was pleasantly surprised. While the seating conditions are a bit crowded, the food more than makes up for it. The wait to get in was long, but once seated the service was very prompt.

They have daily specials which are amazingly cheap and even more amazingly tasty. A three-course meal including soup, rice, and entree was no more than $2 or $3 U.S. read more. What User doesn't like about El Sazon Spnish Food:

the food was disgusting! the mofongo was dry without seasonal and the carne was so dry that I couldn't chew it. the oil was old and dirty. I have cola instead of pepsi. I'll never eat her. do not order from this place. read more. If
