What User likes about Collin Street Bakery I-35 Waco: excellent deli food, but we always keep for their cookies and causes. fantastic coffee. the only criticism I have is, although they offer gluten-free products, they keep them in the same case and treat them with the same pliers and like the non-glue-free products. this leads to cross-contamination. So if they eat gluten-free from dietary founders (not wrong with) they should be good, but if they have a sensibility or... read more. Expensive! But you will get delicious cakes and pies. We had chili too but that was just okay. We saw several signs for this place and had no idea of its history so decided to look it up. We bought 1 large pie about 40) and 3 small ones about 20 each) plus the chili. Spent a little over $100 dollars for that. Although my $40 pie was absolutely delicious it's not something I could afford to do regularly read more.
