My schedule is very limited and I'm almost 2 yrs in hull. Love walking in hull and I've always walked by the restaurant wanting to see what it was like and im glad i found out because the staff is so nice. I've been to the sandbar which makes today's visit twice so far. The chicken broccoli alfredo from first visit and pastrami sandwich from today was perfect. Waitress marlo is so nice and friendly. This is my new go... read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WLAN for its visitors, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Lauren Such doesn't like about Sandbar Hull:

The menu online from the menu in the restaurant which was disappointing as a vegetarian. I had a lot fewer options than I was expecting. We had the fried feta and the majority of the feta had melted out of the breading.

Everything else was just on, so it wasn't really redeeming. Edit: thank you for your response. Several of the options you have listed below were not in the printed menu that was provided in the restaur... read more.
