Mario's Catalina is one restaurant where the service is just as great as the food. They specialize in a latin cuisine like paellea, empanadas, Bolleche, which is latin pot roast, Masas de puerco, which is pork chunks deep fried with garlic seasoning. Being a native of Miami, I have grown up on these foods, and Mario cooks them just as good as you can get on calle ocho. Plus the care and attention that he gives to his... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather. The Mario's Catalina originating from Fort Lauderdale dishes out various fine seafood dishes, Furthermore, the drinks menu in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and extensive assortment of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try. The savory Spanish dishes from the kitchen of the restaurant are also worth it, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
