At this Subway location, customer experiences reveal a troubling trend of rude service and unsatisfactory food quality. Many patrons report employees exhibiting laziness and unprofessionalism, with some recounting instances of being treated poorly and served questionable ingredients. Notably, the sandwiches often feature poorly arranged toppings or oddly flavored meat, diminishing the overall experience. Additionally, customers are advised to be cautious of a new tip screen that can easily lead to unintended charges, and it's important to note that this location does not accept coupons.
