pleasantly surprised. for the tomato juice salsa it was not free with table chips. however: we enjoyed several excellent dishes. chunky guac mates well with everything. the meal was a flaming sizzling hit. and there is a dish on the menu that I never thought I would see in a Mexican restaurant: something with one pasta. I can try this next time. lkw parking for 6 or so. but I recommend to tell them to take it with th... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Vallarta Mexican:

they are stingy and very expensive. I love el patron in hollis crossroads, alabama. prices are more reasonable and great service. it is worth the extra few miles to spend less and eat more and get better service. read more. Look forward to the diverse, delicious Mexican cuisine, traditionally prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), and you can look forward to the fine typical seafood cuisine.
