The Ship Tavern, a longstanding favorite in Denver, offers a mix of nostalgic charm and culinary ups and downs. While some guests rave about the vibrant atmosphere and flavorful dishes like seafood pasta and pastrami sandwiches, others lament the decline in food quality, citing salty meals and underwhelming portion sizes. Service is often highlighted as attentive, with staff going the extra mile to enhance guest experiences. Despite its rich history and appealing cocktails, the Tavern faces increasing competition in Denver's evolving dining scene. While some patrons still cherish it, others believe it must reclaim its former glory to remain a top choice.
