It makes me sad to write this as this has been a favorite of mine for decades. TVs in the tavern kills the ambience. The food was okay but not great. French onion soup used to be the best in town. Now it's half the size it was cold and hardly any cheese on top. Prime rib was almost cold and baked potatoes were small with very limited additions (no chives?!? Key lime tart was so small and not housemade. It was bright... read more.
