Iv had two wonderful experiences at this restaurant on the sit down side. My child loved the bento box. My experience with the hibachi side however went a little differently. It was a total accident but the chef did accidentally lose his two prong fork and it went flying at us (Talk about spooky) Accidents can happen and they were very apologetic.. read more. What Brigid Avery doesn't like about Sakura Japanese:

Service was lacking. We were seated at the same time as the other half of the room but they received their soup and salad before we even placed our order. We enviously watched as they got their hibachi show and ate...and we waited. Waited almost 30 minutes for wine and my son never got the tea he ordered. Food was good and plentiful and the experience was fun but it was almost 2 hours. Filet was salty but my kids lik... read more. In the Sakura Japanese from Grandville, a lot of freshly harvested vegetables, fish, and meat are used to prepare easy-to-digest, fine Japanese meals, On the menu there are also several Asian dishes. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, The inventive fusion of different menus with fresh and partially daring products is highly valued by the guests - a nice example of Asian Fusion.
