very delicious! we had the teicherei käse dosa and rava masala dosa. the owners and employees were extremely helpful and welcoming. they were happy to make us suggestions and went out of that to make sure we had a good experience. they even cut the dosas differently for us, as they knew we were sharing. it was our first time there, but we will definitely be back. they make everything fresh while they wait and wait is never very long. they are sensitive to their nutritional needs, containing gluten. if they are not Indian as I am, they are always happy and patient to explain the different dishes. I was here about 10 times at this point and eating is always delicious. it's not nice, but it's special. read more.
