This restaurant doesn't focus on turning tables as quickly as possible like their competitors. Instead, this restaurant is more about quality. You can see it from the presentation of the food to the chilled salsa and everything else in between. Highly recommend the cheesy enchiladas with onions and rice. Wish I lived closer! read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about La Casita:

Good food, great prices, garbage service. We ordered takeout with some friends who decided to dine in and were told the bill would be brought over to us along with the food when it was ready. An hour later almost on the dot, our friends had long since finished our meal and we went to the counter to pay to learn they'd had most of it done for ages and just not told us. When we asked what had happened they immediately... read more. It's certainly always an event to be in a typical saloon and to eat; to feel like a cowboy for once with a beer and also the finger food like crispy fries, onion rings or a delicious burger, Particularly with the bite-sized Tapas, you can't absolutely nothing wrong, because there is something for every palate. Among the customers, the versatile, fine Mexican cuisine is also popular, in which mainly corn, beans and hot peppers are used.
