The food is great, It's slightly less of a portion than most Mexican restaurants in the area. That being said, the quality and flavor is much better than most of the Mexican restaurants in the area. The service was not bad but no one seemed to be smiling. I generally just go here on the weekends after golfing. Their chicken enchiladas pair well with a game of golf. The chips are some of the best in San Diego and the... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather. What Maria Carapia doesn't like about Anita's Mexican Cantina El Camino Real:

Where should I start. No reception when we walked in. Finally was seated at bar. No wait person. We had to flag someone to help us. The Margarita was horrible. The food was mediocre. Only good thing was the rice. Saving grace was the waiter once we got one. I did notice the larger groups did get better service. I guess two isn't worth the bother! read more.
