A week ago I spent about $17 on an Italian and a turkey subway on the subway. I had enormous difficulties because they didn't know what an Italian was (her B.M.T. I just spent $15 and bought two Novice size, but Superior Subs. The bread was freshly soft with a crispy crust. The ingredients were amazing. I have the Italians all the way I was skeptical about because I usually don't get my sub-parts with hot peppers and... read more.

What User doesn't like about Snarf's Sandwiches:

Honestly, I asked about a 1 on the horseradish and they added a 0 at the end. Had enough horses in my first bite to remember the memory of the first pain. It's a sandwich, not a torture technique.
