Excellent service and decent food. I was surprised the Lengua wasn't very seasoned and the Carne Asada was a little dry but they still were well presented and tasted good enough. I also had a cheese quesadilla. The only complaint I had with it is the cheese wasn't entirely melted inside. I loved the chips and salsa, although the salsa was the strangest I've ever had at a Mexican restaurant anywhere in the world. It w... read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Los Altos: the waitresses only treat the men with smiles and constantly all when they need something, we (I and my friend) had to cancel our hand and ask them about everything we needed (napkins, extra chips etc) I left them $18 drinking money because that is who I am, but please let them flirtatious waiter know that all customers pay.

eating is good only bad service. read more. Get excited about the diverse, tasty Mexican cuisine, which is traditionally cooked with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), and you can look forward to the delicious typical seafood cuisine. In addition, you can expect typical Italian cuisine with tasty classics like pizza and pasta.
