Beautiful building. Loved the architecture. Very homey and comfortable inside. Was there for breakfast and the dining room was filled with friendly locals. Had the omelette. Good but a bit too greasy for my tastes. Great service. read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about Newellstown Diner:

wonderful, amazing eating. I ordered a second sandwich and had to wait an hour after the first came out in 10 minutes. then we got a completely different reception from what we should have, and then they forgot to charge for the bagel of my sister. tldr food is a big but terrible customer service.
