What User doesn't like about Piada Italian Street Food:

I love eating her, but not using her online order at midday. they only do not make online orders until the in person line is gone. that can be about an hour at midday. I had 3 experiences where I ordered online, showed up at the time of picking up and then waited for 45 minutes for my food. the workers will not even look at them or acknowledge their existentiality, so could not even cancel my order and go somewhere e...
