I wish I could load this 5 stars! I have been going for years to organic pharmer and always had a great experience. the staff and eating are always wonderful and I never had a problem with the price given the quality of their product. it doesn't bother me that some of their items are not vegan, as they have many delicious options for me. love this place! So, I have only gone in to get the vegan baked items which are not bad, but certainly not the best either. I have ordered coffee before which is a cold brew kept in the fridge and then heated via the steamer attached to the espresso machine. That's not the best way to serve hot coffee. The staff is not the friendliest. read more.
