tons of vegan options, make them just make sure not to specify a ei. delicious food. the cook has even made sure to ask if we are in order with fish oil (we are not - avoid the Thai peanut sauce) and let us change our order. they like to know what is vegan and which of their products are not-vegan. read more. What User doesn't like about Sriracha House:

Not that great of food for the price you pay. Very oily. Cashier was rude and seemed to hate her life. Specifically asked for no egg and despite the specification attached to each serving container all 4 of our orders had eggs in them. No vegan chicken was available that day. Manager was very nice. Sauces were good if you're game for some oily noodles not a terrible choice but I wouldn't go again. read more.
