the place is on the small side. it has friendly staff and the portion of the food is great and very filled! the Mediterranean dishes were great. I'd probably go back. we ordered a Falafel plate and a Gyros plate. my own and three friends were shocked when the taste was shudding, how full we were. we went back to our hotel, which is located in the inner city, and were happy for the exercise. I believe that this is def... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities.

What User doesn't like about Falafel Corner:

they must have changed the property or the administration. a few months ago, it was the best burgers in the city. today I went around 16 o'clock, the service was terrible, the burger was dry like the hell that forget my riders and it costs $18. there were no customers at all at the place. when the bag was handed over to me, it had no aroma at all. the burger patties must have been under a sunlight because when I was h...
