Got married at Depot 22 years ago. We go every year for our anniversary but had not since the restaurant changed ownership. For us, it's a shell of its former self and lost a lot of its family feel. Food was ok as well as the price, not as good as prior chef. When we went previously, the staff knowing it's our anniversary would do something small like put rose petals on the table, comp us a glass of champagne, or des... read more.
